THE OLD EAGLE GOING IT WITH A RUSH
The Eagle
STEAM FOUNDRY
OF
TURTON & SERCOMB,
296, 298, 300, 302 and 304, West Water Street
IS still in full blast, working day and night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planeing Machine or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of — horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to their former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine, and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and defy competion in any department.

In regard to the character of the work got up by this, The Oldest Establishment in the State, the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation thro' the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man. They continue to manufacture Flour and Saw Mill Gearing and Steam Engines on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORK, such as Guage and Cylinder Cocks, Oil Cups & Cocks, and Steam Whistles. Also Turton's Files, which they will sell at the lowest cash prices.

They are also Agents for Eastman's Patent Steam Guages, which are well worth the attention of all who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."

WASHINGTON, March 29, 1856. National Committee

Call For a National Nominating Convention.

To the Abolitionists of the United States:

OUR undertaking is the abolition of American Slavery, every part and parcel of it. To this understanding we are prompted by impartial love for the white man and the black man, for the slaveholder and the slave, and by supreme love for Him, who gave His Son to die for all men, because He loved all men.

The means we employ are moral and political. They are prayer to God and argument with man, and votes that agree with, and give effect to prayer and argument.

Another Presidential election is approaching. Can we rely on any of the great parties of our country to do our work in that election? ON NONE OF THEM. NONE OF THEM GO FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY. Only one of them is so much as anti-slavery; and even that one is anti-slavery at but a single point. The Republican party opposes the introduction of slavery into the Territories, but endorses its constitutionality in all the slave States.* It lets alone the whole slave trade, not only that between the States, but the coastwise trade also, which is carried on under the sanction and regulations of Congress. It lets alone slavery in the District of Columbia. It even lets alone the Fugitive Slave Bill, and will it may, for it fully admits that all the States, and does not deny that all the Territories, also, are the constitutional hunting-ground for slaves. The Republican party would have Kansas a free State. Nevertheless, it would allow the slaveholder a safe pursuit over all its prairies and through all its towns after his bleeding and broken-hearted fugitive.

We need not have said all this to prove that we have no right to rely on the Republican party to do our work in the coming election. Enough to this end is the fact that the slavery which we are trying to abolish this party spreads its wing over, and denies our right to abolish.—Enough to this end is it that whilst we hold slavery to be a pre-eminent piracy and a naked outlaw, and that the Constitution not only does not, but could not legalize it, this party, on the contrary, regards our endeavor to liberate the millions of slaves as a war upon the Constitution and a violation of law.

Let it not be supposed that we undervalue the character of the members of the Republican party. Not a few of them are our personal friends—esteemed and beloved by us. A considerable portion of them, we trust, are Abolitionists at heart, and subscribe to our principles.—But the more excellent the character of the members of this party, the more injurious the false policy which they have suffered to be stamped upon the party. That such men should make such concessions to slavery, is lamentable indeed. Alas, for Freedom, when even her own professed friends can consent to yield so much to slavery in exchange for so little for freedom!

Is it said that policy dictates the adoption of a platform on which all can stand who are opposed to the extension of slavery, be the degree or character of their opposition what it may? And is it argued and expected that the Republican party, though starting on the low ground of this policy, will rise into an Abolition party? We answer that such a policy will, from its own inevitable influence keep down and drag down the party that adopts it.—Hence, should the Republican party get the reins of government, it will endeavor to satisfy the nation by restoring the Missouri Compromise, and acquiescing, at every other point, in the present possessions and practices of slavery. It would feel itself bound, by the implications of its platform, not to disturb those possessions and practices. Thousands in the Republican party mean that it shall work the overthrow of slavery, and doubtless many slaveholder fears this result. Nevertheless, the success of the Republican party may prove the confirmation rather than the subversion of slavery, the most authoritative and effective endorsement of slavery, because endorsed by anti slavery men.

It is manifest, then, that we, who refuse all concessions to slavery, and all terms with whatever piracy, must lay our account with doing our own work in this election.—We must nominate our candidates and vote for them, and do what we can to persuade others to vote for them; Why should we despair of electing them? Mighty will be the appeal of our principles to all who love justice and liberty for all. In their bosoms the motto of the Republican party, "Slavery sectional—liberty national," can awaken no enthusiasm, and call up no response.—The words that tell our truthful, glorious, heavenly principle, "SLAVERY FOR NONE—LIBERTY FOR ALL"—these are the words that have power to unlock their hearts and enlist their sympathies, and fire their zeal. Thousands may come to us who would never consent to go to them. Thousands may desert their standard to gather around ours. Why, indeed, should not the whole Republican party do this? The comparatively little good for which it goes, we go for also. And should they refrain from coming to us, because, in addition to this, we go for other and immeasurably greater good? Think us not extravagant when we say that it is far from improbable that the Republican party will come to our standard. Another great outrage at the hands of the Slave Power—such as the slaughter of a hundred men in Kansas—and there will quickly be but two political parties in the nation—one party to kill slavery, and another to save it. A party to abolish slavery and a party to defend it will be the only political parties for which we shall then have room—or for which we shall then have the least demand.—This was virtually admitted by Abijah Mann when, amid the loud applause of the Pittsburg Convention, he said:

"If the Government proceed to the shedding of a single drop of blood, for the purpose of having the infamous laws of the Border Ruffian Legislature enforced, I give it to you as my deliberate conviction, and on my responsibility as a citizen, that it will be the end of human slavery in this land."

In such an event, what room would there be for the Republican party, with its distinct admission that "the slaveholding interest, in the States where it exists, is entitled, under the Constitution, like all other local interests, to immunity from the interferences of the General Government"†? In such an event, what room would there be for the Republican party, a party "disclaiming any intentions to interfere with slavery in the States where it exists"†† In such an event, what room would there be for the Republican party, whose Convention referred to was presided over by a slaveholder, representing a slaveholding constituency, and bringing with him, as he himself stated, a "Southern platform," designed, as he himself stated, to restore the Missouri Compromise as "the security of the slave institution"; ‡ a party that, like the Janus-faced Colonization Society, has its pro-slavery appeal for the South, and its anti-slavery appeal for the North—a party in which slaveholders and anti-slavery men are to unite for the common object of a mutual compromise that shall be "the finals of all existing commotions," and that shall nevertheless leave the slave in his chains!§

We must not, however, concern ourselves inordinately with the question, whether there will be few or many to come to us. We should find sufficient encouragement to go forward in the assurance that God is with us In claiming, as we do, the immediate and unconditional liberation of every slave, and in denying, as we do, the possibility of law for slavery, we cannot doubt that we have the Divine approbation and the Divin blessing.

Meet with us, O'n brethren, at Syracuse, on Wednesday the 28th day of next May, for the purpose of nominating men, for President and Vice-President of the United States, who have the ability, the integrity, and the courage to assert their principles, and who will wield their official powers for the deliverance of every American slaveholder, and for the salvation of the whole country. We confess too, that we should expect to see still greater numbers of you but for our apprehension that most of you are still in the habit of looking to others than Abolitionists, and waiting for other than Abolitionists, to do your work. In 1848 you must wait to see what the Buffalo platform party would do. It did nothing but die.—In 1852 you must wait too see what the Pittsburg platform party would do. That too, did nothing but die.—And now, will you wait to see what the second Pittsburg platform party will do? That is just as sure to die as were the others. At its very birth it refuses to inscribe on its banner the motto of its predecessors, "No more Slave States," and rallies, in company with slaveholders on the one issue of restoring the infamous Missouri Compromise, in which Freedom was betrayed, the Slave Power enthroned, and its career of successful aggression inaugurated.

Every anti-slavery party that does not rise to the level of an Abolition party is without root and must wither away. To expect success for this new Pittsburg party—for this policy of stopping the progress of slavery at one point, whilst indorsing and guaranteeing the great mass of it—is scarcely less folly than to expect to save the city by an attempt to stay the flames at one point, whilst the incendiaries are permitted to fan the flames at every other.

WHOLESALE FALSEHOODS.

THE Madison Journal arraigns us with all the insolence of an office holder, and, as is usual in cases of promotion, accuses us of being influenced in our present course by the fact that we were not nominated for Governor last fall.—And it rings all the changes on that tune, like a person anxious to open a quarrel, as we have every reason to believe it is. It resorts, too, to the "old game" of quoting as gospel all that the Argus says about us, while it would feel justly indignant if we should copy as truth what the Argus says about it. And waxing confident, it says, that in return for the flatteries of the Barstow press, "he [we] glossed over the fraudulent canvass, by which Barstow was a second time foisted upon the State in defense [defiance?] of the vote of the people, and, through his paper used what influence he had to discourage Gov. Bashford from seeking to obtain his rights. At the opening of the session, when the Barstow faction was triumphant, insolent, boastful; when Gov. Bashford's prospects looked most dark and gloomy; and when, if ever, every true Republican should have been found on the side of jusstice and principle, Mr. Booth was not merely passive, but in the enemy's camp—one of Barstow's most intimate and confidential friends. No man was more frequently closeted in the Executive chamber. None of Barstow's ardent supporters associated more intimately with the Forty."

We pronounce every statement of the above paragraph utterly false in every particular.—We stated all the facts in regard to the canvas which we knew, without coloring; we advised Gov. Bashford to look over all the ground carefully, and, if he felt sure he had a good case, to go ahead, and we never held any other advice, publicly or privately; we never were closeted with Gov. Barstow or his friends, but went into the Executive Chamber when we pleased, as we go elsewhere, without leave of our would-be-keepers. We uniformly said to Gov. Barstow, the State Canvassers, and all his friends, that we believed Mr. Bashford had a majority of the legal votes, and if the case ever came to trial, on its merits, the Court would so declare. These are the facts, tho' it suits the malicious purposes of the Journal to publish wholesale falsehoods respecting them.

Since this article was put in type, we have received the Argus, which, after copying the last part of the paragraph above quoted, from the Journal, says:

"Every statement of this paragraph is a falsehood. If Mr. Booth was intimate with Gov. Barstow, we would be likely to know it. He may have made a respectful call upon Gov. Barstow, and have repeated it. * * * * * But there was no political sympathy between them. They met as political enemies, while personally they were acquaintances and gentlemen. Gov. Barstow received neither "aid nor comfort" from Mr. Booth. We, with the Governor's permission, furnished him a copy of the message, as we did the News, the Wisconsin, Mr. Gillies, Mr. Pratt and others."

The Journal is certain that Messrs. Frisby, Domschke and Roser would not have signed the last call without "the active exertion of some other person, accompanied by misrepresentations and unfounded assertions respecting the call of the State Central Committee!" Mr. Roser was the first one to call publicly for such a Convention. Messrs. Frisby and Domschke can speak for themselves.

The Journal also says:—"A short time since Mr. Booth formally announced that he had cut loose from the Republican party, and was hereafter going to act 'on his own hook.'"

The Kenosha Telegraph also made a similar announcement. On the 4th inst., in an article on the State Convention, after regretting that our efforts—having done all that was proper to persuade the State Central Committee to call a Mass Convention—had failed, we added:—"Our responsibility is ended! Henceforth let us be counted as a soldier in the ranks of Freedom on our own hook."

And, after contrasting the spirit of the party to-day, with its spirit at its first organization, we said:—"We shall stand by the Republican party as long as it is true to principle, and manly and honest in its course. But we shall not sanction a time-serving policy, nor support doughfaces, doubtful, incompetent mill-and-water candidates."

For what purpose the Journal and the Telegraph, made the above announcement, torturing our sentence into a meaning which was not warranted by its connection, and suppressing our other statement, that "We shall stand by the Republican party, as long as it is true to principle, and manly and honest in its course," we leave our readers to infer. In a business transaction, such course would be deemed a dishonest. As between politicians of opposite parties it would be deemed dishonorable. Between political editors of the same faith, it shows a desire to instigate a quarrel, so strong, that misrepresentation and unjust accusations must be resorted to, to accomplish it.

As to the Journal's statement that we reported the names of the State Central Committee, we long ago explained our agency in the matter.—We did the best we could, and there was nothing left us but to take it as it was, or have a row. We supposed Mr. Wood had repudiated Know Nothingism, or we should have refused our assent to his nomination. Had we refused, the Journal would have quarreled with us for that. We never do anything right in its estimation.

The Journal also falsely says, "the Free Democrat and the Argus were the only papers in the State furnished with the Bogus Message in advance of its delivery.

We reply, that Wm. K. Wilson, Mail Agent served the Free Democrat, Wisconsin, News and Plain Dealer, with copies of the Message, on the same day, in advance of its delivery.

The American was furnished with a copy, in advance of its delivery, and others might have had it for the asking.

We suppose this is the opening of a general fight. All the Republican presses, that sympathise with the K. N.'s, publicly or privately, will copy these onslaughts upon us, and the Hunker pressee, glad of an opportunity to divert public attention from the great issue, will fan the flame of discord, and keep the embers stirred. We had hoped the Republican presses had indulged long enough in personal controversy, and that they would let us breathe, a few weeks in peace But, it seems, nothing short of our annihilation will content them. We shall be glad to see them reconsider their determination, and turn their batteries elsewhere. If he Delegate Convention is true to Republicanism, the Mass Convention will not hurt it. If it is false to Republicanism, it will be imperatively needed.

WE received, by to day noon's mail, a copy of last week's Telegraph, instead of this week's. Inasmuch as Mr. Sholes enclosed to us, by mail, a proof of his forthcoming article on us, we think it a little singular.

THE Editor who professes to be a Republican, is the right bower of Judge Wood, and stigmatized a Mass Convention as a mob, is very much opposed to a Mass Convention.

☞ We shall copy an article from the Atlas, Mr. Domschke's paper, to-morrow, which shows his position.

CORRESPONDENCE

WAUPUN, April 16, 1856.

S. M. BOOTH, ESQ—

Dear Sir:—Please append my name to the call for a Mass State Convention.

If the Republican party cannot be secured from the control and dominion of Know Nothingism, I don't care how soon it "bursts up."—

Very Respectfully,
JESSE HOOKER.

Mr. HOOKER was a member of the Assembly, two years ago.—ED.

WE publish, to-day, the call for the Syracuse Convention, signed by Gerrit Smith and 800 others. It will pay for the time occupied in reading it.

Mass State Convention.

The Fond du Lac Freeman has the following sensible remarks:

"We notice that a movement is on foot to circumvent the Know Nothings, who are dishonest enough to claim to belong to both parties, by holding a Mass State Convention at Madison the same day the Republican Delegate Convention is to be held. We have no doubt that the one held in Madison last September, on the spur of the moment, did our cause much good, as it showed men who were not blind and reckless, that the Know Nothings, if not rebuked by the Convention, would wreck the party. We have no doubt that one more deliberately called, and more numerously attended, would either exert a good influence on the Delegate Convention and keep the party in the straight and narrow path that leads to Freedom, and away from Know Nothingism, or, in case the fears of many are well-grounded that the desperate Know Nothings will, by means most foul, control the Convention, then a strong body of Freemen will be on hand to commence the work of re-organization. No man, unless he is a Know Nothing, or first cousin to one, will fear, or deprecate, the presence of a body of men who believe "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty!" We hope the meeting will be called. The question whether Republicanism is so elastic as to cover Know Nothingism, might as well be adjudicated at once. Then we shall know who is who."

We agree with the tone of this. If the Delegate Convention shall do its duty manfully, the Mass Convention will not injure, but aid it, and give it momentum and force. But if it fails, as many fear it will, and falls into the embraces of Know Nothingism, and appoints Know Nothings on its State Central Committee, then the Mass Convention will re-organize for the coming canvass. It would be too late to call a State Convention after that time. Hence the propriety of the Mass Convention on that day. We trust it will be largely attended, and that all who take an interest in the welfare of the party will be present, if possible. Everything depends on the right direction being given to our preliminary movements.

LA CROSSE R. R.—The Beaver Dam Republican of the 17th inst says:

About two miles of track is all that is required to be laid to make our city the terminus of the La Crosse Railroad. Enough ties, we understand, were brought upon the ground on Tuesday, to finish it, and about one week more of good weather will complete it. So that we may safely calculate upon a visit from the "Iron Horse," in one week from Saturday next.

ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC.

PEACE TREATY SIGNED!!

The Str. Baltic arrived at New York from Liverpool on the 17th inst., with the following intelligence:

The treaty of peace was signed by all the plenipotentiaries on Sunday, March 30th.—Great demonstrations were made in Paris by firing cannons, illuminations, &c. The English demonstrations were much more quiet.—Ratifications cannot be exchanged within four weeks.

The Africa arrived out on the 31st.

Cotton—Stronger than at previous advices, 18a18¾. Sales for two days 24,000 bales.

Breadstuffs—Dull but not lower.

Consols advanced to 93¾.

LONDON, April 3, 1856.

FRANCE.—The Moniteur of yesterday announced that by a special decree, the award of the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor was conferred on Wockstrike Wockski and Baron Bourgency is raised to the dignity of a Senator. Official journals also announce the Emperor's decision that the soldiers of the class of 1848, who have been retained to this time under the military banner, shall be returned home. Orders for the immediate execution of the will of the Emperor, have already been issued by the Minister of War.

The ceremonial announcement of the conclusion of peace was made in the Senate and in the corps Legislation on Monday, in the words previously employed to announce the fact in the Moniteur. To this proclamation the Minister of State addressed the Emperor, who has charged that in bringing the fact to your knowledge to thank you for the support you have always offered, which with the admirable devotedness to the Allied forces, have contributed to the happy issue of the war.

FERRIBLE TORNADO.—The fearful tornado which visited Philadelphia on the 12th inst. seems to have extended over various portions of Pennsylvania and Ohio. At Philadelphia, two churches, a school house, a railroad depot, a large iron foundry, and some 150 dwellings were badly damaged or entirely ruined

At Pittsburg the storm was less severe and only a few houses were unroofed.

At Alleghany City, the new bridge across the river, which cost $32,000, was destroyed.

Along the line of the Ohio and Pennsylvania railroad, houses were blown down, and trees thrown across the track At Beaver two dwellings were destroyed, and two lives lost and a new Female Seminary building unroofed. At Bridgewater the gable end of a church was carried away. At Harmony, 16 houses, were demolished; and a great deal of damage done to buildings in that region.

At Alliance, Stark Co., a church and 15 houses were destroyed. The roof of the Exchange Hotel was blown off; four brick buildings, had the fronts thrown into the street, and a man who was passing was instantly killed. All through that region of country, immense damage was done to buildings in the villages and two farm houses. As many as 26 lives were lost.

OMITTED.—The State Canvassers, in their recent defense of their Canvass, omit to notice Spring Creek, Bridge Creek, and Gilbert's Mills. The public would be happy to have some explanation of the remarkable vote of these towns, if the State Canvassers have any to offer.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT NASHVILLE.—A terrible fire visited Nashville, Tennessee, on the 14th inst. The Court House, Nashville Hotel, and several other houses, were totally destroyed, and a number of other buildings badly injured. The loss is estimated at $200,000, upon which there is $100,000 insurance.

DISCOVERY OF LEAD ORE IN IOWA.—We learn by a gentlemen from Lansing, that a short time since, a Mr. Tichnor, formerly from Platteville, struck a valuable lode of lead ore on Silver Creek, a small stream running into the Little Iowa, about twelve miles west of Lansing. It is represented as an east-and west sheet, in a regular perpendicular crevice, six inches in thickness and ten feet in height, with every appearance of continuance. They are raising about four thousand pounds per day.—There is quite an extent of country lying directly west of Lansing where small quantities of lead ore have been found on the surface, but it has not, except to a very limited extent, been mined for. This is the first regular lode that has been struck, that we have heard of.—Galena Adv., 14th.

☞ The Watertown Chronicle has long article on the Presidency, in which it says:

"That national nominating conventions, as they have been constituted and managed for the past twenty years, have in a great measure, proved a failure, by both the political parties, if placing before the nation, the highest degree of talent, integrity and general qualifications, was the object and wish of the people. We believe the whole plan of National Nominating Conventions, is as radically wrong, in practice, as the constitutional method of electing a President and Vice President, by electoral colleges, is unjust and anti Republican in principle, as it perverts the voice of the people, by the skilful political engineering of old and new aspirants to Presidential favor and patronage."

NAVIGATION.—The Prairie du Chien Courier of the 12th inst., says:

The ice left the river opposite this place, last Saturday. On Monday the Alhambra made her appearance at our Levee, and ever since there has been a brisk succession of Steamboats passing and repassing, crowded with passengers, and some of them heavily freighted. The War Eagle on her upward trip had upwards of 500 passengers. The ice in the Lake Pepin remains firm, but cannot hold out much longer.—We understand that a boat is plying above the lake, so that passengers are enabled to get through to St Paul, by making a portage round the lake.

—A French nobleman, suspecting another was trying to supplant him in the affections of a lady, sent him a challenge, which the latter, with a view to some testamentary arrangements wished to defer till next day; this the former flatly refused. 'I will fight' said he, immediately, I only fight because I love the lady now; how do I know I shall love her to-morrow.

CRITICISM.—La Bruyere says: When a person of feeling and discernment reads a book and it excites in him elevated thoughts, he may be sure the work is good, and he needs no other mode of proving it.'

—'I have lost my appetite,' said a gigantic gentleman, and an eminent performer on the trencher, to Mark Supple. 'I hope,' said Supple, no poor man has found it, for it would ruin him in a week.

—There is a school mistress teaching school in the town of Lisbon, New York, who stands in her stocking feet, six feet seven inches.

State Rights Government.

Gerrit Smith, in a recent speech in the Capitol at Albany, in enforcing the doctrine of State Rights said, in relation to the late slave case, at Cincinnati:

It was in the power of my noble and beloved friend Governor Chase to give slavery a death blow, the other day. If, when he learned, that Cincinnati was invaded by pirates and kidnappers, in their pursuit after innocent prey, he had summoned a force to capture them, or shoot them down if they did not surrender, neither Ohio, nor any other Free State, would ever again have been subject to a similar invasion. Such action on his part would have brought up the question distinctly and intelligently, whether there is in this nation such a thing as a State Government:—and whenever that question is brought up, American slavery will go to the wall, and America will be free. I said whenever the question was brought up distinctly and intelligently—for a State Government in any intelligent view of it, is one, that suffers no innocent person to be dragged from its soil. That deserves not the name of a civil government, which does not hold its shield constantly, faithfully, effectually over all within its jurisdiction—even the least baby, aye, the least black baby. That does not, necessarily, deserve the name of civil government, which protects such persons as ourselves—such persons as crowd this chamber. For we, with our various powers and influences, can, in the main, protect ourselves. We need but little help from Government.—That, and that only, is entitled to the name of civil government, which protects the humblest and obscurest—the poorest of the poor and the weakest of the weak.

Frankness.

Frankness is supposed to be a common virtue. It is most uncommon. It is indeed an extraordinary thing. It requires truth, simplicity, love, and genuine goodness. Many men speak plainly when they do speak, but they are not open and free. Many speak thruth very plainly when angry; many speak pleasant thruth frankly. But few there are whose souls are so balanced in an atmosphere of love that they speak whatever needs to be said to each and to all, plainly, gently, fully. The dearest friends live together for years without daring to speak things which they know, and which each party knows that the other knows. Parents live with a reserve years long towards their children. Children carry untouched, unsyllabled thoughts and feelings that take hold of their very being. Friends meet and part every day, friends so true, that would almost die for each other, or what is harder than this, who are willing to live for each other, and never speak of things that each knows is passing in the other's mind. It is very strange to see people come up in conversation to topics, that, by a tacit freemasonary, are sacred, and without word or look, one glides past on one side and the other upon the other side, and meet beyond going down the common channel again Was there ever a thoughtful, sensative person, that dared to be open, transparent, frank?

But, however this may be, there can be no doubt that Christian people are not frank enough for each other's good. If men knew how to speak the thruth in love, how rich might one become. A man might stand then in the focus of the wisdom of all his friends. But, refusing to let their light shine, men now grope in the partial light of their own wisdom, distempered by self-love.

CANAL ACROSS THE ISTHMUS OF SUEZ.—This great enterprise, which, for many years, has seemed too visionary a project to be seriously entertained, is likely, says the Philadelphia Ledger, to prove not only practicable, but to be actually realized. The commission of engineers and scientific men, whom the Viceroy of Egypt appointed to examine and determine upon the practicability of uniting ocean to ocean by this means, have made a report, in which they declare that the canal could be built on nearly a direct route from Suez to the Gulf of Pelusium, with a branch to the Nile. The cost is $8,000,000, and the construction will take six years. At Suez, 25 feet of water will be found at the distance of 5,000 feet from the shore. The port to be constructed in the Gulf of Pelusium, which the former project placed at the bottom of the Gulf, will be located twelve miles to the west, on a part of the coast where the water is 22 feet deep at less than the distance of two miles from the shore, and where the anchorage is good, and getting under sail is easy. It is estimated that a saving will be made in distances between the respective places and Bombay, as follows: Constantinople, 12 900; Havre, 8,923; London, 8,560; Liverpool, 8,550; New York, 7,317; New Orleans, 8,178. More than one half the distance is abridged between the principal ports of Europe and Asia, by the proposed canal. This single fact shows its immense utility to all nations, as well as to Egypt and Turkey, and will secure for its projectors, the best wishes of the civilized world.

A HUSBAND OBTAINED UNDER FALSE PRETENCES.—A stout respectable looking man apparently about thirty-six years of age, applied to Justice Brennan, at the Third District Police, for a warrant to arrest a woman who had obtained him for a husband under false pretences. She it seems whom he wished to have arrested, had been married on a very slight acquaintedt; but she appeared pretty good looking, and was apparently the possessor of some little money. But appearances are deceitful, and the night of the marriage, he discovered he had been taken in and done for. When her cheeks had been robbed of the rouge with which they were colored, and the false teeth fell out, and her jawless gums were exposed, and the wig which covered her bald pate fell off, he stood horror struck at the thing which he so shortly before rejoiced in calling wife. He asked her age. It was seventy. It is needless to say what his "feelincks" were.—They can be better imagined than described.—Nor could the law afford him any satisfaction.—N. Y. Police Gazette.

SAGE WORTH GATHERING.—Somebody has said, and a great many persons put faith in the saying, that 'We ought always to believe less than we are told.' This may be a safe maxim for general use, but when a woman entrusts you, in confidence of course, with her age, you may always believe a great deal more than you are told.

—ILLUSTRATING A POINT.—Sir Fletcher Norton was noted for his want of courtesy.—When pleading before Lord Mansfield on some question of manorial right, he chanced unfortunately to say, 'My lord, I can illustrate the point in an instant in my own person. I myself have two little manors. The Judge immediately interposed, with one of his blandest smiles, 'We all know it, Sir Fletcher.

THE CROPS IN SOUTHERN TEXAS.—The Nueces Valley, published at Corpus Christi, states "that judging from the very considerable number of new farms that have been opened this spring in the Valley of Nueces, there will be at least four times as much corn raised in this and the adjoining counties, as during any previous year."

—It is set forth in the geological survey of Missouri, "that the coal beds of that State can furnish 1000,000,000 tons per annum for the next 1,300 years; and with regards to iron that there is ore enough of the very best quality within a few miles of Pilot Knob and Iron Mountains above the surface of the valleys, to furnish 100,000,000 tons per annum of manufactured iron, for the next 200 years."

☞ It is reported that since his retirement from the Washington Union, Mr. Forney is employing his leisure hours in writing a biography of Mr. Buchanan.

☞ The New York and Erie Railroad Company is about to undertake the extension of the line.

A GEM.

When young I loved. At that delicious age
So sweet, so short, love was my sole delight;
And when I reached the season to be sage,
Still I loved on, for reason gave me light.
Age comes at length, and livelier joys depart,
Yet gentle ones still kiss those eyelids dim.
For still I love, and love consoles my heart:
What would console me for the loss of him?

—Ladies who are greatly admired by their own sex, are seldom viewed in the same light by gentlemen. Some ladies speak of "ladies' beauties," and "gentleman's beauties."

—It is a curious fact, that those women who have made the most acquaintances during a long course of years, have by far the best memory for faces and persons.

—Although women are supposed to be the talkative sex, it is not less true, that in learning a foreign tongue, men acquire more readily the facility for speaking it, while ladies understand it better and sooner when spoken to.

—Our devil says that getting in love is somewhat like getting drunk, the more a feller does it the more he wants to.

—'John, I fear you are forgetting me,' said a bright eyed girl to her sweetheart. 'Yes Sue, I have been for getting you those two years.

—It is not at all extraordinary, says 'Young American,' that the state of the streets should impoverish the shop keepers, since it even beggars description.

—'When I goes shoppin,' says an old lady, 'I alters as ks for what I wants, and if they have it, and it's suitable, and I feel inclined to buy it, and it's cheap, and can't be got at any place for less, I most allers takes it, without chaffering about it all day as most people does.'

FRIDAY ..... APRIL 18.

LECTURE ON KANSAS.—The Rev. C. H. Lovejoy, direct from Kansas, and who has resided there for the last year, will discourse to the people of Milwaukee, at the Spring St. M. E. Church, Sunday at 3 o'clock P. M., in which he will give a brief history of Kansas troubles. A collection will be taken to aid in building a M. E. Church in Lawrence, K. T. Friends of freedom in Kansas are invited to attend.

HATS CAPS AND STRAW GOODS.—Mr. J. H. Silkman 152 East Water Street, is receiving an immense stock of hats, caps and straw goods from New York, the largest and most complete stock of hatters goods, he says— and he is a man of unquestioned veracity—ever brought into Wisconsin—which he offers to sell as low as any house west of New York. For the past two or three years we have patronized Mr Silkman exclusively, and have always found him accommodating and perpendicular in his dealing; and those of our acquaintance who have purchased goods at his store, pay him the same compliment. He buys at the lowest figure, does a heavy business, and can therefore afford to sell low and at small profit.

☞ Attention is directed to Mr. Gifford's advertisement—"Spring Street Nursery," also to that of H. Spaan—"Fruit Trees."

REAL ESTATE SALE.—The north half of lot 5 block 44, in the 3d Ward, was sold yesterday for $750.

THE THEATRE.—We dropped in, an hour, last evening, at Young's Hall, that we might judge from our own observation of the character the performance of Mr. Thorne's Company.—We think it incomparably the best Company which has ever appeared in this city. The leading characters in the play last evening, exhibited a high order of talent, and the Thorne's, all of them, acquitted themselves remarkably well. We have seen similar plays in the best theatres, not half as well rendered—we have seldom seen them excelled. If this Company shall do what we feel assured they are capable of doing, and avoid those pieces which offend the tastes of the cultivated and the refined, they may furnish innocent and healthful amusement, and coin the good will of the public into substantial benefits. For the play and characters this evening, see advertisement.

☞ Messrs. Clason, Huntsman & Benton bow themselves out of the News this morning. Mr. Sharpstein having purchased the paper takes their place. They have conducted the paper in a creditable manner and we regret to part with them.

AMERICAN TRANSPORTATION CO.—The following propellers are announced for the season to run in this line between Buffalo and other lake ports:

For Chicago, Waukegan and Racine; the Iowa, Potomac, Buffalo, Sun, Oriental, Chicago, Milwaukee, and Nile.

For Milwaukee and Sheboygan; the Toledo, Forest Queen, Allegany, Queen of the Lakes, Edith and Niagara.

For Detroit, Toledo, Sandusky, Cleveland and Erie; the Cataract, M B Spaulding, Sandusky, Pocahontas, Charter, Sciota, New England, Ohio, F. W. Backus, and Detroit.

Twenty four boats in all.

POLICE COURT.—Christian Klein was bro't up this forenoon for threatening to commit an assault and battery upon Christoph Bach, and was held to bail in the sum of $250, to be of good behavior for two months.

FOR LAKE SUPERIOR.—The str. Superior will leave here for Lake Superior on the 24th inst.

MAYOR CROSS' BLOCK.—We saw in Messrs. Mygatt & Schmidtners office, yesterday afternoon, a finely executed plan of Mayor Cross' block, to be erected on the site of the old U. S. Hotel. The building will be 80 feet front on East Water street and 120 front on Huron st. and four stories high. We understand that Mr. Cross intends it shall be a more splendid block than any heretofore erected in Milwaukee. It is designed for stores, offices &c. and will cost from $40,000 to 60,000.

REPUBLICAN ASSOCIATION.—The Republicans of Leon, Waushara Co. have organized under the name of the Leon Republican Association, and have adopted a constitution, and elected the following officers.

President.—Royal Keating.
Vice Presidents.—Wm. Luckey, T. J. Cross.
Treasurer.—S. M. Brown.

Corresponding Sec.—A. P. Noyes.

LUMBER TRADE.—The Oshkosh Courier of the 15th inst. says:—

The late heavy rains have swollen the streams in the pine regions, and the logs are coming down with a rush.

ACCIDENT.—During the gale, yesterday, a German woman, while passing along West Water street, had severe wounds inflicted on her forehead and cheek by a plank which blew down upon her from a pile of lumber.

DIRECTOR.—Judge Jenkins was elected a Director in the La Crosse R. R. Co. yesterday, in place of Stephen H. Alden, resigned.

WATER CART.—HENRY NEIMAN, was out with his watering cart, yesterday afternoon, wetting the dust on West Water Street.

☞ The Janesville Standard is to be issued a daily paper, on and after the 22d inst.

RABID DOG.—A dog, believed to be rabid, was shot in the Fourth Ward yesterday. Dogs should be taken care of forthwith.

☞ There was an unpaid letter in the Fond du Lac Post Office, on the 14th inst., addressed to C. F. Zimmerman, Milwaukee, Wis.

NATIVE COPPER.—The Madison Journal says: "We have upon our sanctum table a piece of virgin copper, handed us by Mr. Simeon Mills of this place, found in Vienna, in this county, about four feet below the surface of the earth. It weighs about thirty pounds."

NEW POST OFFICE.—A new Post Office, called Westville, has recently been established in the town of Lafayette, Walworth Co., and Nelson West appointed Post Master.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

The Great Remedy for Nervous Debility.

J. M. BLEMEIER, BOYLESTOWN, PA., June 20, 1853, says:

"My wife has been afflicted with a nervous debility since September, 1851, since which time I have been unable to find any physician or medicine that would benefit her in the least, until one day I called at the store of Dr. Harvey of this town, for some tincture of iron, and described to him the afflictions of my wife; he then handed me a lot of papers to read, among which I found one describing your German Bitters. I immediately procured a few bottles from him, and am pleased to state that the use of the Bitters has done her more good than all the medicine she has heretofore taken. I wish you to send me a half dozen bottles."

BOWLING FOR THE MILLION!

The Nucleus of Pleasure Reduced to Five Pence
DURING THE DAY!

THE "BADGER STATE" SALOON TRIUMPHANT!

Roll away, roll away, roll away all,
Set up the pins, boys, the price is but small;
Off with the coat, now, and roll up the sleeve,
And set it, my jolly lads—leave away, heave.

With the arm's muscles bare, for one hour, fling
Dull care to the air, and at five cents a string;
Roll away, roll away, beauty and strong,
'Twill develope the man, and his life thus prolong

Who we old sit moping all day in his chair,
When pleasure and profit, so rich and so rare,
Can be had, and that, too, at such a cheap rate,
At the Bowling Saloon of the old "Badger State.

Come, then, "Young America," foreigners, too,
Here's rolling and frolicking—not just for the few,
But for old and for young, for little and great—
Come join in the fun at the old "Badger State."

☞ Entrance both on Main and East Water Streets.

Look for the Red Light.
